NEWS AND COMMENT.

Some of the citizens of Cumberland Gap, not pleased with the expulsion of several students from Lincoln Memorial University, have started a new school, which has been nicknamed the Jeff Davis Memorial school.

The war revenue reduction bill will be reported to the senate the latter part of the week. There are several objections to the house bill, and the stamp tax on telegrams and bank checks may be continued.

St. Louis is torn up over the fact that the chief of police and other officials entrusted with the enforcement of the laws were recently discovered participating in a game of craps.

The naval appropriation bill completed by the house committee calls for a total of $77,000,000, an increase of $11,000,000 over the appropriation for the present year.

The post office appropriation bill as approved by the house committee carries a total of $122,748,688, as compared with $113,638,238 for the present year.

James Sturgill was shot and killed by Deputy Sheriff Elkins in Letcher county while resisting arrest for the murder on Christmas day of John Cole.

Scott Wile, former member of congress and assistant secretary of the treasury during the second Cleveland administration, is dead.

The British government has decided to send large reinforcements to South Africa. Five thousand yeomanry volunteers will be enlisted.

At Flemingsburg, Ky., Wm. Thacker was given a life sentence for the murder of John Jordan during a political argument.

It is stated that the Bolivian forces that are endeavoring to rush the so-called republic of Acre are meeting with reverses.

Pittsburg manufacturers and business men will celebrate the election of Quay as senator by giving a banquet in his honor.

Near Seymour, Ind., John Plummer shot and wounded A. C. Brannan, a road supervisor, and committed suicide.

Pennsylvania capitalists closed a deal for 40,000 acres of timber and mineral lands in Monroe county, Tenn.

Dr. Abram Mosher, of Griggsville, N. J., has been arrested for spanking his wife with a frying pan.

Frank Crowell lost his life in a fire which destroyed an apartment building at Chicago.

A New York firm will ship $1,000,000 gold to Paris.

A military conscription is in existence in Venezuela.

IN EVANSVILLE.

PADUCAH—YOUNG MAN TO WED AN EVANSVILLE GIRL.

Mr. Charles Mix, a well known young man of Paducah, and Miss Tillie Speck, of Evansville, will be married at the home of the young lady in the latter place, on Wednesday, January 23d.

Miss Emma Mix, of the city, has gone to Evansville to attend the wedding. The couple will reside in Evansville.

BRITISHERS PLEASED.

London, Jan. 17.—Londoners have been much interested in an article written by Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, on "The Relations of the United States and England." The comments on the article are all favorable, as it is considered that Watterson's summary of American opinion on the Nicaragua canal is able, accurate and friendly. The main point touched upon is that the amended treaty contains nothing which Lord Salisbury would not have sanctioned had he been consulted in advance by Secretary Hay.

FATAL BATTLE

At Corbin, Ky., Grows Out of a Shooting Scrape There Yesterday.

THREE DEATHS RESULT

Store House Blown Up By Men After the Proprietor For Killing a Brother.

PEACE TODAY PERHAPS TEMPORARILY

Corbin, Ky., Jan. 17.—There was a pitched battle here last night. It grew out of the shooting yesterday of Jim Shotwell by Rolla White. The brothers of the latter attempted to arrest White, threatening to lynch him, and the miniature fight followed. During the promiscuous firing Susan Cox and Sutton Farris, bystanders, were killed and three others wounded. White's store was wrecked with dynamite used by the Shotwells. White was captured, but on route to Williamsburg, to be jailed, escaped and is still at large. Jim Shotwell, wounded yesterday, is dead. Peace reigns today, though the excitement is intense. White's recapture would no doubt renew the troubles.

SECOND ESCAPE.

MRS. MALLOURE COMES NEAR BEING KILLED IN I. C. FREIGHT YARDS.

A switch engine in the Illinois Central freight yard came near killing Mrs. Joe Malloure, who resides on Campbell street, near Sixth, about 6 o'clock last evening. She was on her way home with a basket and several bundles, apparently paying no attention to the approaching engine and box cars. She was knocked down between the rails and two of the cars and a portion of the engine passed over her, but with the exception of a mashed foot she escaped injury. Dr. Williamson was called and dressed the injury. It is the second escape Mrs. Malloure has had near the same place. About two years ago she deliberately walked in front of a switch engine and would have been killed had not a switchman on the front end of the engine reached over and pushed her off the track. She is quite old, and is well known about town.

HER DEATH CAME.

New York, Jan. 17.—Miss Louise Schaefer, formerly a teacher in the public school, No. 25, who was twice prepared for the grave by an undertaker, has been buried, her actual death following the strange trance, in which she was first thought to be dead.

Miss Schaefer was seriously ill with gastro-enteritis and on January 3 was so low that her father and the relatives thought her dead. An undertaker was called in and in preparing her for the grave he noticed a slight sign of life. He sent for Dr. Ward. The latter applied restoratives and the sick woman rallied.

It was thought she would recover, and she was moved to the private hospital. Weakened by her long illness, however, she could not rally and death finally ended her suffering.

DISSOLUTION.

The Williams Bicycle company is this day dissolved by mutual consent, J. A. Williams retiring. Robt. B. Williams will continue the business under the firm name of Williams Bicycle company.

DANGEROUS BLAZE.

BUT FORTUNATELY IT WAS DISCOVERED IN TIME.

The fire department was called to Third and Broadway at 6:30 this morning, by the discovery of a dangerous blaze in the rear of Mr. Wm. Bonemann's office, over the First National bank.

The fire originated among some sacks left by workmen, a spark from an adjoining building straying into and igniting them. A boy at Miss Cora Williams' millinery establishment down stairs next door discovered the blaze and the alarm was at once given, and good work done by the fire department.

The damage was slight, but a destructive conflagration was no doubt prevented by the timely discovery of the flames.

VERY UNUSUAL.

CHILD BORN WITHOUT TONGUE OR PALATE.

Mr. Joseph Lay and wife, who live above Mechanicsburg, are parents of a child born eight days ago, and which has neither tongue, nor roof to its mouth.

All nourishment given it comes out the nose, and the child has been eight days without food. Physicians say that there is nothing possible to be done for it, and death is only a question of time.

MANY REPAIRS.

ICE COMPANY SPENDING SEVERAL THOUSAND DOLLARS ON ITS PLANT.

The Paducah Ice company has begun extensive repairs on its plant. New boilers, condensers and machinery are being put in, and $7,000 or $8,000 will be expended on the improvements. The work will probably not be completed in two months.

EXPULSED FROM PARTY.

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 17.—A joint caucus of the senate and house Democrats was held yesterday afternoon at which resolutions were adopted expelling from the party the six Democrats who aided the Quay Republicans in the organization of the house and Wm. J. Galvin, of Shenandoah, who also voted for Mr. Quay for United States senator.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

WAS DISORDERLY.

Al Dodson, of the county, was arrested last night for being drunk and disorderly. A pistol was fired at one of the wagon yards and it was thought Dodson fired it, but when the case was tried in Judge Sanders' court today it could not be proven, and he was let off with a fine of $25 and costs.

HODGE HELD OVER.

James Hodge, colored, who threw a brick at Mr. Tom Boswell in Mr. J. W. Dicke's grocery, Saturday night, and swore it was some one else, was tried before Judge Sanders for false swearing this morning and held to answer in the sum of $300.

THE RE-DISTRICTING COMMITTEE.

The re-districting committee, which is revising the magisterial districts, is still at work at the county court house and will probably be in session several days.

Miss Daisy Blythe, of Fulton, guest of Miss Flora Dicke for several days, returns home this evening.

The one-month-old daughter of Henry Walker, colored, of Boyd street, died today from whooping cough, and having had no doctor. Coroner Phelps was called to sign the death certificate.

Miss Lillie Rucker has accepted a position in the office of Drs. Sanders & Griffith.

Sensational Defalcation Report Which Today Comes From Bowling Green via Louisville.

BROWN SUSPECT IS DYING

Senator Quay Given an Ovation in Washington Today When Sworn In By the Senate.

DIDN'T CONSIDER KENTON MUDDLE

Washington, Jan. 17.—An ovation was given Senator Quay when he appeared in the senate today and presented his commission and asked to be sworn into office. There was an unusual scene of enthusiasm, which lasted for some time. Senator Quay's desk was piled high with floral designs.

Pensacola, Fla., Jan. 17.—An unknown man, who is believed to be defaulter Frank Brown, of Newport, Ky., was disemboweled by unknown parties last night and is now in a dying condition.

Frankfort, Jan. 17.—The Democratic central committee is holding a session here today to settle the Kenton county muddle, which is a heated fight between Mayor Rhinock, of Covington, and Gooch, the county chairman, each of whom is contending for supremacy as a leader. Both are sanguine.

Later—the committee adjourned without taking action in the Kenton county muddle, leaving the matter standing just as it did when the committee adjourned its special meeting held in Covington.

Louisville, Jan. 17.—The Times this afternoon prints a sensational telegram from Bowling Green, saying Luther Porter, until recently cashier of the Warren Deposit bank at Bowling Green, is short in his accounts at the bank $49,000. The telegram says the stockholders promptly made up the deficit. Porter is one of the most prominent men in Warren county. Cashier Harris, of the Louisville National bank, which is the local representative of the Warren Deposit bank, says Porter is not short, as reported. He says the Warren Deposit bank holds Porter's paper for a considerable sum, most of which is secured, and that the alleged shortage must be the money which is due on Porter's private transactions with the bank.

CULLOM WINS.

ALL OPPOSITION WITHDRAWS, LEAVING HIM AN OPEN TRACK.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 17.—The senatorial contest in this state has been brought to an unexpected close, but not unexpected result. All the opponents of Senator Cullom have left the track and with an open field his election is only a question of a ballot. There is great rejoicing among the supporters of Mr. Cullom and especially those who stood out from the first against opposition which promised to be formal.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

The board of health meets this afternoon at Dr. Brother's office, and will elect officers. No health officer will be elected today, as it is desired to have the council increase the salary before the election. Dr. H. T. Rivers is mentioned as the next health officer.

Mr. Walter Funk, of Cairo, is at the Palmer.

WEIGHT FELL.

CHIEF BAILEY AND THE OTHERS THOUGHT IT WAS DYNAMITE.

Marshal Collins placed a bundle in the vault at the city hall last evening when he was ready to go home, and calling Night Chief Henry Bailey, said:

"Henry, there's a couple of sticks of dynamite that were found today. Be careful and don't get rough with them, or they might go off."

"What did you put them in there for, anyhow?" asked Chief Bailey, as he eyed them askance and unconsciously got farther away.

"Well, I didn't have any other place," explained the marshal. "I'll see what we can do with them tomorrow."

The two sticks of "dynamite" were fully discussed among the night force, but had almost been forgotten when about 11 o'clock the big weight in the city clock fell, and as it crashed into the floor of the tower, made a tremendous noise.

Chief Bailey, Lieut. Moore and Officers Goureaux and Singery, all of whom were in the building at the time, simultaneously thought of the dynamite in the vault in the next room, and almost before the echoes of the crash had died away the four officers were in the street waiting to see the city hall topple into ruin from the explosion.

It was considerably later in the night before their courage sufficiently returned to permit an investigation of the trouble.

The "dynamite" was one of Marshal Collins' bundles he wanted to insure against being molested.

No cause is assigned for the weight supporters breaking.

The weight, which worked in a groove extending to the basement, also created consternation among some of the prisoners when it descended into the lockup. It weighs about 600 pounds and when it struck one of the female prisoners turned the stove over.

ONLY A DOG.

THE SENSATION WAS NIPPED IN THE BUD.

Workmen while excavating for the patrol wagon house adjoining the city hall this morning unearthed the skeleton of what appeared at first sight to be the skeleton of an infant. It was neatly wrapped up and had been well laid away.

When they recovered from their excitement and made a closer inspection of the find, they discovered that the skeleton was that of somebody's pet dog.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The suit of Dr. J. D. Robertson against the North American Insurance company, for $2,500 on a policy on office furniture, was dismissed by the plaintiff yesterday afternoon. The loss had been adjusted and the company was only delayed slightly in forwarding check.

The suit of Vernon Blewett against "Tex" Sprague, for $2,000, is still on trial in the circuit court and will probably require all day, and perhaps longer. The Tobe Dennis larceny case has not yet been taken up, as Dennis has not been produced in court.

BODY IN TRUNK.

New York, Jan. 17.—The police have found a trunk containing the body of a man in the East river at the foot of Pier 11. The body had been placed in the trunk with the coat and shirt covered with blood. The clothing had no marks on it.

SUMMONS AGAINST A BOAT.

Preliminary summons were taken out in United States Commissioner Pargy's office this afternoon by Newton Robinson, fireman of the City of Gloucester, for $7.65 claimed to be due for wages.

A GRIZZLY.

Meeker, Colo., Jan. 17.—News comes from the Keystone ranch that Colonel Roosevelt had a narrow escape from a grizzly bear. A Bruin was discovered in a "box" cannon. Colonel Roosevelt ran ahead of his party and opened fire on the animal. The bear turned and charged toward the hunters. By this time the muzzle of Roosevelt's weapon

Teddy threw his gun away and ran.
